

Dyddol Mercher Hydref 22

But in a place high above the fury of the streets, where the wind carried the wailing roar of the traffic, someone nurtured a little piece of ...

paper from a birthday card they had rescued from a house fire.

The Bully

"Flush!" the toilet screeched as Bill's head was forced down the revolting loo. "Stop!" came the gargled sound of the boy bullies target, Bill, "Sorry? did you say 'carry on?'" Bob the bully teased poor Bill as his head got wetter and wetter. Bill eventually managed managed to get his head out of the toilet toilet as Bob's gang mocked and jeered at him as he gasped for air.

The boys toilet as at Coventry School absolutely stank of Lynx from Bob's gang spraying it about, it choked ~~the~~ choked Bill as much as it did when his head was down the loo.

"Had a nice summer Summer holidays without us Bill?" Bob's best friend Terry sarcastically questioned. Bob's gang was